

FROM YESTERDAY'S FIFTH EDITION. FROM EUROPE.

March's Threat of the Resurrection of Versailles, March 23.—In the National Assembly to-day an adverse report was made from a committee upon a bill providing for the reversion of a municipality in Paris.

Events in Paris do not indicate the execution of the convention entered into with the man commander, which forbids any approach to the lines before the forts occupied by Germans.

Bismarck claims a restoration within twenty-four hours of the telegraph leading to Paris, which has been destroyed, or Paris will be treated as an enemy; and should there be any proceedings in violation of the preliminaries of peace, the fire of the forts will be opened on the city.

Favre stated that he had replied to Bismarck at the insurrection in Paris was a surprise to the Government, but would be repressed. If there was delay in its suppression it was because the Government was hopeful of avoiding bloodshed.

Bismarck claims a restoration within twenty-four hours of the telegraph leading to Paris, which has been destroyed, or Paris will be treated as an enemy, and should there be any more proceedings in violation of the preliminaries of peace, the fire of the forts will be opened on the city.

It is reported that the Government had no means of repressing the telegraph, but would ask its reinstatement of the mayors of the arrondissements through which it passed.

The Government had no means of repressing the telegraph, but would ask its reinstatement of the mayors of the arrondissements through which it passed.

There is a report that Favre is endeavoring to get the telegraph re-installed.

General Leconte and Thomas were buried in Paris.

A Pool of Blood. The Rue de la Paix is a pool of blood, and no man's life is safe in Paris.

FROM WASHINGTON. President's Message on the Condition of the Southern States.—The President sent the following message to Congress this afternoon: To the Senate and House of Representatives.—A condition of affairs now exists in some of the States of the Union which is a source of great concern to the Executive and to the people of the United States.

Mr. Rowan offered a resolution to lay water-pipe on Thirty-sixth, Thirty-seventh, and Thirty-eighth streets, in the Twenty-fourth ward. It was agreed to, with an amendment which required it to be at no expense to the city.

Mr. Walker, from the Finance Committee, reported a resolution to approve contracts for new school buildings, in the Tenth and Fourteenth wards. Agreed to.

Also, an ordinance making an appropriation of $4000 for the further improvement of Norris Square, Nineteenth ward. Amended by making it $5000.

Mr. Waples, from the Committee on Highways, presented a resolution for paving streets.

Mr. Glenn, chairman of the Committee on Police, offered a resolution requesting the Finance Committee to report a loan bill of $300,000 for erecting eight station-houses and the building of a steam-tug for police purposes. So referred.

Mr. Carey, from the Committee on Markets, presented an ordinance authorizing the erection of new market houses in Girard avenue, from Third to Lawrence, Eighth to Tenth, and Elm to O'S street, and creating a loan of $30,000 for this object.

Mr. Buzby, chairman of the joint special committee on town meeting, reported an ordinance, which was passed, making an appropriation of $1964.73 to defray the expenses.

Mr. Allison called up the resolution of request to the Legislature to pass the bill to establish a House of Correction. Agreed to.

Mr. Bardeley called up the bill authorizing the paving of Bainbridge street from Eighth to Ninth, and Ferry street from Twenty-sixth to Gray's Ferry road, and to repave with stone Carbon street, from Bainbridge to Fitzwater, the cost of paving to be taken from item three of the appropriation for repaving streets.

Mr. Calhoun moved to amend by adding Ninth street, from Moore to Winton.

After considerable debate Mr. Wagner moved to indefinitely postpone the consideration of the bill. Agreed to.

Mr. Logan offered a resolution instructing the Chief Commissioner of Highways to furnish Councils with the names of the contractors whose work is not in accordance with their contract, so that they may be held responsible. Agreed to.

Select Council ordinance to lay water pipe on Water and other streets, and the resolution of request relative to Winghooking Park, were considered and concurred in.

A communication inviting the Chamber to attend the mass meeting in the Academy of Music, in favor of the abolition of the Building Commission, was indefinitely postponed—yeas 27, nays 18. Adjourned.

Domestic Affairs.—Hon. John W. Furney has been named as Collector of the Port of Philadelphia.

Governor Alcorn, of Mississippi, is making many removals of corrupt and dishonest officials.

The fruit trees of Iowa are represented as having passed through the winter in good order, and there is fair prospect of a large crop.

Last evening Hon. Fernando Wood gave grand reception and banquet to the Hampshire members of the House, at which there was a goodly representation of Democratic Congressmen.

Nettie Chase, daughter of the Chief Justice of the United States, was married at St. John's Church, Washington, yesterday afternoon, to William Sprague Hoyt, the ceremony being performed by Bishop McIlvaine.

MUNICIPAL CLAIMS.

Notion is hereby given, in accordance with the act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, passed the 11th day of March, A. D. 1850, entitled "An Act relative to Registered Tax and Municipal Claims in the County of Philadelphia," that the following writs and claims have been placed in my hands for service, to wit:—

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS. The City of Philadelphia vs. Unknown owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 24, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for work and labor done and performed, and materials furnished, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of East line street, at the distance of twenty feet eastward from the east side of Thirty-sixth street, in the Twenty-fourth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing five feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. E. W. Kosta, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 25, for the sum of forty-three dollars and eight cents, to wit, for registered taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the southeast corner of Broad and South streets, in the Fourth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing five feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Bennett Schnaps, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 26, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the south side of East line street, at the distance of six feet westward from the west side of the street, in the Twenty-fourth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing one hundred and ten feet, more or less, to or less to a point in the middle of Gunner's Run, then southward to the west side of the street, now or late of John Stiles, then eastward along the same one hundred feet more or less to ground granted to Thomas Bennett, then northward by the same as a line at right angles to the eastward line one hundred feet to place of beginning.

Same vs. Anthony Hongler, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 27, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the south side of Adams street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and eight feet northward from the north side of Adams street, containing in depth Adams street eighteen feet, and extending in depth southward eight feet and five-eighths inches to a six-inch alley.

Same vs. Richard Conner and Labonias Rose, reputed owners, or whoever may be owner, Edward B. Hinkle, receiver, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 28, for the sum of seven dollars and thirty-two cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the west side of Adams street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of twenty-two feet westward from the west side of the street, containing on the said Adams street thirty-six feet (each lot eighteen feet), and extending in depth eight feet, four and five-eighths inches to a six-inch alley.

Same vs. John M. Schwartz, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 29, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the west side of Adams street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and eight feet northward from the north side of Adams street, containing in front on said Hancock street thirty-six feet (each lot eighteen feet), and extending in depth eight feet, four and five-eighths inches to a six-inch alley.

Same vs. John M. Schwartz, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 30, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the west side of Adams street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and eight feet northward from the north side of Adams street, containing in front on said Hancock street thirty-six feet (each lot eighteen feet), and extending in depth eight feet, four and five-eighths inches to a six-inch alley.

Same vs. Jacob Cullinan, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, and Miles H. Hartley, registered owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 31, for the sum of six dollars and twenty cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the west side of Adams street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of ninety feet northward from the north side of Adams street, containing in front on said Hancock street eighteen feet, and extending in depth westward one hundred and nine feet to Fairbairn street.

Same vs. Charles Bette, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 32, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the west side of Adams street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and one foot northward from the north side of Adams street, containing in front on said Hancock street thirty-six feet (each lot eighteen feet), and extending in depth westward one hundred and nine feet to Fairbairn street.

Same vs. James O'Neill, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 33, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, to wit, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the east side of Howard street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and one foot eight and one-quarter inches north of Norris street, containing in front on said Norris street, eight feet, and extending eastward one hundred and ten feet to Hope street.

Same vs. John B. Longshore, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 34, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the east side of Howard street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and one foot eight and one-quarter inches north of Norris street, containing in front on said Norris street, eight feet, and extending eastward one hundred and ten feet to Hope street.

Same vs. William Seeling, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, and Mary Adeline Thompson, registered owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 35, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the southwest side of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and twenty-one feet four and one-half inches northward from the north side of Philadelphia street, containing in front on said Sergeant street twenty feet, and in depth southward one hundred and forty feet to Dickinson street.

Same vs. William Seeling, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, and Mary Adeline Thompson, registered owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 36, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the southwest side of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and twenty-one feet four and one-half inches northward from the north side of Philadelphia street, containing in front on said Sergeant street twenty feet, and in depth southward one hundred and forty feet to Dickinson street.

Same vs. William Seeling, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, and Mary Adeline Thompson, registered owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 37, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the southwest side of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and twenty-one feet four and one-half inches northward from the north side of Philadelphia street, containing in front on said Sergeant street twenty feet, and in depth southward one hundred and forty feet to Dickinson street.

Same vs. William Seeling, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, and Mary Adeline Thompson, registered owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 38, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the southwest side of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and twenty-one feet four and one-half inches northward from the north side of Philadelphia street, containing in front on said Sergeant street twenty feet, and in depth southward one hundred and forty feet to Dickinson street.

Same vs. William Seeling, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, and Mary Adeline Thompson, registered owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 39, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the southwest side of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and twenty-one feet four and one-half inches northward from the north side of Philadelphia street, containing in front on said Sergeant street twenty feet, and in depth southward one hundred and forty feet to Dickinson street.

Same vs. William Seeling, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, and Mary Adeline Thompson, registered owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 40, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the southwest side of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and twenty-one feet four and one-half inches northward from the north side of Philadelphia street, containing in front on said Sergeant street twenty feet, and in depth southward one hundred and forty feet to Dickinson street.

Same vs. William Seeling, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, and Mary Adeline Thompson, registered owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 41, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the southwest side of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and twenty-one feet four and one-half inches northward from the north side of Philadelphia street, containing in front on said Sergeant street twenty feet, and in depth southward one hundred and forty feet to Dickinson street.

Same vs. William Seeling, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, and Mary Adeline Thompson, registered owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 42, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the southwest side of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and twenty-one feet four and one-half inches northward from the north side of Philadelphia street, containing in front on said Sergeant street twenty feet, and in depth southward one hundred and forty feet to Dickinson street.

Same vs. William Seeling, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, and Mary Adeline Thompson, registered owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 43, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the southwest side of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and twenty-one feet four and one-half inches northward from the north side of Philadelphia street, containing in front on said Sergeant street twenty feet, and in depth southward one hundred and forty feet to Dickinson street.

Same vs. William Seeling, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, and Mary Adeline Thompson, registered owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 44, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the southwest side of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and twenty-one feet four and one-half inches northward from the north side of Philadelphia street, containing in front on said Sergeant street twenty feet, and in depth southward one hundred and forty feet to Dickinson street.

Same vs. William Seeling, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, and Mary Adeline Thompson, registered owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 45, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the southwest side of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and twenty-one feet four and one-half inches northward from the north side of Philadelphia street, containing in front on said Sergeant street twenty feet, and in depth southward one hundred and forty feet to Dickinson street.

Same vs. William Seeling, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, and Mary Adeline Thompson, registered owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 46, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the southwest side of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and twenty-one feet four and one-half inches northward from the north side of Philadelphia street, containing in front on said Sergeant street twenty feet, and in depth southward one hundred and forty feet to Dickinson street.

Same vs. William Seeling, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, and Mary Adeline Thompson, registered owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 47, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the southwest side of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and twenty-one feet four and one-half inches northward from the north side of Philadelphia street, containing in front on said Sergeant street twenty feet, and in depth southward one hundred and forty feet to Dickinson street.

Same vs. William Seeling, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, and Mary Adeline Thompson, registered owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 48, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the southwest side of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and twenty-one feet four and one-half inches northward from the north side of Philadelphia street, containing in front on said Sergeant street twenty feet, and in depth southward one hundred and forty feet to Dickinson street.

Same vs. William Seeling, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, and Mary Adeline Thompson, registered owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 49, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the southwest side of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and twenty-one feet four and one-half inches northward from the north side of Philadelphia street, containing in front on said Sergeant street twenty feet, and in depth southward one hundred and forty feet to Dickinson street.

Same vs. William Seeling, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, and Mary Adeline Thompson, registered owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 50, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the southwest side of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and twenty-one feet four and one-half inches northward from the north side of Philadelphia street, containing in front on said Sergeant street twenty feet, and in depth southward one hundred and forty feet to Dickinson street.

Same vs. William Seeling, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, and Mary Adeline Thompson, registered owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 51, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the southwest side of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and twenty-one feet four and one-half inches northward from the north side of Philadelphia street, containing in front on said Sergeant street twenty feet, and in depth southward one hundred and forty feet to Dickinson street.

Same vs. William Seeling, owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, and Mary Adeline Thompson, registered owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 52, for the sum of ten dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the southwest side of the city of Philadelphia, at the distance of one hundred and twenty-one feet four and one-half inches northward from the north side of Philadelphia street, containing in front on said Sergeant street twenty feet, and in depth southward one hundred and forty feet to Dickinson street.

MUNICIPAL CLAIMS.

Notion is hereby given, in accordance with the act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, passed the 11th day of March, A. D. 1850, entitled "An Act relative to Registered Tax and Municipal Claims in the County of Philadelphia," that the following writs and claims have been placed in my hands for service, to wit:—

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS. The City of Philadelphia vs. Unknown owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 53, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 54, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 55, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 56, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 57, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 58, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 59, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 60, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 61, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 62, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 63, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 64, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 65, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 66, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 67, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 68, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 69, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 70, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 71, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 72, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 73, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 74, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 75, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 76, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.

Same vs. Unknown owner or reputed owner, or whoever may be owner, C. P. March Term, 1871, No. 77, for the sum of eight dollars and four cents, for city taxes for the years 1869, 1870, and 1871, against all that certain lot or piece of ground situated on the north side of Philadelphia street, in the Nineteenth ward of the city of Philadelphia, containing in front on said Norris street thirty-two feet, and in depth fifty-seven feet, more or less, bounded on the westward by the street, and on the eastward by the eastward line of Schofield.